

OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL POPPY TRUST

2. Objects of the Trust

2.1 The principal charitable objects of the Trust are as follows ("the Objects"):

- (a) To provide for any Service Personnel, their Spouses and Dependents (including Spouses and Dependents who survive or who have survived Service Personnel), in need including without limitation the provision of welfare and medical assistance, irrespective of any connection with the RSA or not;
- (b) To receive and/or give effect to the trusts and funds set out in Schedule 1 to this Deed and where appropriate to act as trustee for any such trust and administer any such fund provided it is for charitable purposes;
- (c) To act as trustee for any trust or fund whose purposes are consistent with the purposes of this Deed;
- (d) To receive monies and other property bequeathed to or otherwise transferred for the benefit of the RSA or Service Personnel, their Spouses and Dependents;
- (e) To receive, hold and deal with memorabilia of significance to the veteran, service or community at large;
- (f) The advancement of education including without limitation the provision of assistance to youth organisations and the provision of educational scholarships and grants; and
- (g) The relief of poverty or hardship and such other charitable purposes within New Zealand as are recognised by the laws of New Zealand.

2.2 The Trust Fund shall be applied by the Trustees exclusively for charitable purposes within New Zealand as set out in the Objects and it is declared that the provisions and effect of clauses 2.1 and 2.2 shall not be altered negated or otherwise modified on a basis which would result in the Trust ceasing to be for charitable purposes within New Zealand.
